2. Purpose of PAIA Manual

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, 2000 ("PAIA") came into operation on 9 March 2001. PAIA seeks, among other things, to give effect to the Constitutional right of access to any information held by the State or by any other person where such information is required for the exercise or protection of any right and gives natural and juristic persons the right of access to records held by either a private or public body, subject to certain limitations, in order to enable them to exercise or protect their rights.

Where a request is made in terms of PAIA to a private body, that private body must disclose the information if the requester is able to show that the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights, and provided that no grounds of refusal contained in PAIA are applicable. PAIA sets out the requisite procedural issues attached to information requests.

Section 51 of PAIA obliges private bodies to compile a manual to enable a person to obtain access to information held by such a private body and stipulates the minimum requirements that the manual has to comply with.

This Manual constitutes our PAIA manual. This Manual is compiled in accordance with section 51 of PAIA as amended by the Protection of Personal Information Act, 2013 ("POPIA"), which gives effect to everyone's Constitutional right to privacy.

7. Detail to facilitate a request for access to a record of our business

7.1. How you can request access

We have appointed our Information Officer to comply with our PAIA obligations and deal with all matters relating to it. To request access to a record, please complete Form 2 – See Annexure B.

Please submit the completed form (together with the relevant request fee we explain below) to our Information Officer's email address or our physical address, using the details we provide. Please ensure that the completed form:

- has enough information for the Information Officer to identify you, the requested records, and the form of access you require,
- specifies your email address, postal address,
- describes the right that you seek to exercise or protect,
- explains why you need the requested record to exercise or protect that right,
- provides any other way you would like to be informed of our decision other than in writing, and
- provides proof of the capacity in which you are making the request if you are making it on behalf of someone else (we will decide whether this proof is satisfactory).

If you do not use the standard form, we may:

- reject the request due to lack of procedural compliance,
- refuse it if you do not provide sufficient information, or
- delay it.

7.2. How we will give you access

We will evaluate and consider all requests we receive. If we approve your request, we will decide how to provide access to you – unless you have asked for access in a specific form.

Publication of this manual does not give rise to any rights to access information records, except in terms of PAIA.

7.3. How much it will cost you

PAIA differentiate between 2 types of fees, request fee and an access fee.

When submitting your request, you must first pay us a request fee as the law prescribes. You must pay us the prescribed fees before we give you access. The request fee is R 140,00 (plus 15% VAT).

If we grant the request, you will have to pay us a further access fee the law prescribes that includes a fee for the time it takes us to handle your request, or if the time has exceeded the prescribed hours to search and prepare the record for disclosure – See Annexure A. Our Information Officer will notify you if you need to pay a deposit for the access fee. The deposit may be up to one third of the prescribed access fee. The access fee will provide for:

- the costs of making the record, or transcribing the record,
- a postal fee (if applicable), and
- the reasonable time we need to search for the record and prepare the record for you.

If you paid the deposit and we refused your request, we will refund you the deposit amount. Until you have paid the fees, we may withhold the record you requested.

7.4. Grounds for us to refuse access

We may have to refuse you access to certain records in terms of PAIA to protect:

- someone else
- another company's commercial
- someone else's confidential
- research
- the safety of individuals and property, or
- records privileged from production in legal proceedings

7.5. Our decision

We will notify you in writing whether your request has been approved or denied within 30 calendar days after receiving your request. If we cannot find the record you asked for or it does not exist, we will notify you by way of affidavit that it is not possible to give access to that record.

7.6. Remedies available if we refuse to give you access

If we deny your request for access, you may:
